

BRANDON 10 year old Male
Domestic Short Hair mix
Talkative, independent

If you need a cat who knows how to stay out of trouble and will always keep your secrets, Brandon is the cat for you! Talkative when he is looking for a treat and always keeping an eye out for fun. Although he is declawed, he still enjoys a good scratching post to exercise his muscles. Once he is comfortable with his surroundings, he will make himself right at home.

Brandon is comfortable with some cats, but being a lady's man, he prefers the company of female cats. He enjoys quiet days looking out the window or just hanging out, people watching on a high vantage point. Being 10, he is only middle aged and he is full of life and ready to make funny, wonderful memories with his new family.
